Cabinet Secretary Transmittal Letter Required for Procurement Code Violation Determinations

All requests for determination of a possible Procurement Code violation, submitted to the State Purchasing Division following rejection by the Department of Finance and Administration, must be accompanied by a transmittal letter signed by the Cabinet Secretary or equivalent (the latter only if no Cabinet Secretary is associated with the organization – such as an agency, board or commission.) This is done to insure the highest level of visibility of the potential violation of law. If necessary, in the absence of the Cabinet Secretary, signature by a Deputy Cabinet Secretary or equivalent is acceptable.
