RE: Extension of the term of Low Voltage Wiring Products and Services (Premise Distribution Systems)
Price Agreement Number 20-008-00-00075 AN

The term of the New Mexico Statewide Price Agreement listed above will expire July 15, 2018. The New Mexico State Purchasing Agent (SPA) invites Sound & Signal Systems of New Mexico to extend this price agreement through July 15, 2019 at the same terms, price and conditions of the original price agreement together with any subsequent amendments thereafter.

The State Purchasing Agent has requested a review of all state purchases under this agreement to determine if sales under this contract are within the scope and intent of the awarded contract.

The purpose of this procurement is to provide qualified (industry standard) low voltage wiring products and services (aka Premise Distribution Systems) to include cable; wiring; related hardware; and installation of services for eight product categories. The eight categories are: paging systems; inside wiring systems; outside cabling systems; video surveillance systems; fire alarm systems; wireless systems; video/audio conference systems; and access control systems.

This review has started but will not be completed before the contract expires. Once review of Sound & Signal Systems of New Mexico is complete, you will be notified whether or not your contract is in compliance. If determined non-compliant, Sound & Signal Systems of New Mexico will receive a cease and desist letter. If a response is not received with an approved remedy, the contract may be cancelled.

By signing below, your company agrees to extend or not extend as outlined above. New Mexico State Purchasing Division must receive a response from you, the awarded vendor for this extension to be in effect.

Please respond by EMAILING your signature on this letter to Vanessa LeBlanc at Vanessa.LeBlanc@state.nm.us no later than 5:00 pm MDT Thursday May 3, 2018.

Example: Goal: Reduce or Increase or Other Service [insert blank].1

Objective: To reduce or increase or Other Service [insert blank] by [blank] percent or by a certain time.2

Activities: [Insert what services the Contractor is expected to perform to accomplish goals and objectives including an evaluation of the process and the outcome as well as provides efficiency measures that relate efforts to outputs of services].

1 A goal is an “output” measure. It measures the quantity of a service provided. For example, the number of students graduated or promoted; the number of two-lane highways repaired; or the number of crimes investigated. It also can measure the quantity of a service provided that meets a certain quality requirement. For example, the number of students graduated or promoted who meet a minimum preset level of achievement; the number of miles of roads repaired to a minimum safety standard; or the number of criminal investigations performed that result in identification of a prime suspect.

2 An accomplishment is an “outcome” measure. These indicators measure accomplishments or results that occur (at least partially) because the services were provided. For example, the percentage of students achieving a specified skill level in reading, the percentage of miles of roads in excellent, good or fair condition; or the percent reduction in serious crimes or the percent of residents who perceive their neighborhoods as safe.
